

Terms of Service

THE AGREEMENT FOR USING BAKEBOOK

BakeBook · Home bakery manager · bakebookapp.com | Effective 3 October 2026

These Terms of Service govern your use of BakeBook at bakebookapp.com. By creating an account and using BakeBook, you agree to these terms.

1. The service

BakeBook is a tool for home bakers to record orders, track payments and expenses, create receipts, and view simple profit reports. It is a record-keeping aid and does not provide tax, accounting or legal advice.

2. Your account

- You sign in with your email and a one-time code. Keep access to your email secure, as anyone with it can sign in.
- You are responsible for the accuracy of the information you enter and for how you use it.
- One account is intended for one baker or bakery.

3. Free trial and subscription

- New bakers get a 14 day free trial with full access. No payment is required to start.
- After the trial, continued use requires a paid BakeBook Pro subscription. Current plans are Monthly Rs 299, 6 months Rs 1,499, and 12 months Rs 2,399.
- Payment is made by UPI and confirmed manually by us. Once we confirm your payment, your plan is activated for the chosen period.
- If a subscription is not active, your account becomes view-only: you can still see all your existing data, but cannot add or change entries until you subscribe or renew.
- Prices may change in future; any change will not affect a period you have already paid for.

4. Referral programme

BakeBook offers an optional referral reward. Each friend you refer who subscribes on a yearly plan earns you one free month. If six of your referred bakers take a yearly plan within a twelve month window, you earn a full free year. A new baker who joins using a referral code and pays yearly receives one bonus month. We may adjust or end the programme; rewards already earned and confirmed will be honoured.

5. Acceptable use

- Use BakeBook only for lawful business record-keeping.
- Do not attempt to break, overload, copy or resell the service.
- Only store customer details you are entitled to keep, and treat your customers' information with care.

6. Your data

Your data belongs to you. We store it to provide the service, as described in our Privacy Policy. You can export your reports and request deletion at any time.

7. Availability

We work to keep BakeBook running smoothly, but we cannot promise it will always be uninterrupted or error free. We recommend you keep your own notes of critical orders as a backup.

8. Payments and refunds

Because every baker gets a 14 day free trial to evaluate BakeBook before paying, subscription payments are non-refundable once confirmed. Full details are in the Refund and Cancellation Policy.

9. Limitation of liability

BakeBook is provided on an "as is" basis. To the extent allowed by law, we are not liable for indirect or consequential losses, or for lost profits or data, arising from use of the service. Our total liability is limited to the amount you paid us in the three months before the claim.

10. Ending your use

You may stop using BakeBook at any time. We may suspend accounts that break these terms. On request we will delete your account and data.

11. Governing law

These terms are governed by the laws of India. Any dispute will be subject to the courts of Chennai, India.
